MASONIC TEMPLE – Blue Room

Guest Speaker – Armand G.R. Conant, B.Eng., LL.B, D.E.S.S.
(Sorbonne)

Armand heads up the condominium law department of the full service law firm of Shibley Righton LLP and represents numerous condominium corporations across central Ontario.

Armand resides in Toronto, is a Past-President of the Canadian Condominium Institute (Toronto), where he also serves on the Board of Directors and is Chair of the Legislative Committee. In addition, Armand is a member of the Discipline Committee for the Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario ("ACMO").

Condo Board of Directors

The duties, powers and purpose of the board of directors of a condominium corporation are set out in, and governed by, the Condominium Act, 1998 (the "Act"). The board of directors complies with and enforces the Act, the regulations, the associated judge-made case law, the condominium declaration, the bylaws and rules of the corporation. A director is expected to attend board meetings, hire a management company, if needed, and govern the fiscal sustainability of the corporation, etc.

The intent of this course is to provide an educational opportunity to present and future board members to enable them to better understand the role.

Starting at 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

Please register in advance to ensure proper seating and materials are available.
